

Friday 12th February 2010 at 20:00 / 8:00pm

The Winter Triangle

This heavenly equilateral triangle is a landmark of the winter night sky and is formed by our brightest night sky star, Sirius the giant star, Betelgeuse, and the brightest star in Canis Minor, Procyon.

